Copy of letter addressed to the Dewan

While acknowledging receipt of the Complimentary Pass No. 102 requests permission to his retaining the Pass until after the ensuing birth day session is over.

The rule is the Pass should be made available to the Correspondents only for particular occasions. In the present case Mr. C. Pillay wants to keep the Pass till after the ensuing Birthday.

[The Dewan has directed in another file re the return of pass by Mr. Sanjiva Rao that this rule ~~it~~ may be altered & the Pass may be issued to the correspondents ~~availed~~ so as to be available for 1 year at a time.] ~~Action is being taken~~ in this file Dewan's orders on Mr. Pillay's petn. may also be awaited.

Dewan's orders on the petn.

Ch: dear. I see no objection. Why not give these for one year at a time as I have said more than once. It will save all trouble.

May Mr. Pillay be permitted to retain the Pass as asked for? A draft reply put up.
